

Società Italiana di Ergonomia

21 November 2013 (h 14-18)

Piazza Martiri della Libertà 1, Pisa - St. Anna University, room 3

Innovations and creativity in process and product assessment and design, the contribution of Human Factors and Ergonomics

Towards IEA 2018 in Florence, international seminar on research and practice in HFE

In cooperation with the Healthcare Management Laboratory of the St. Anna University, endorsed by the Federation of European Ergonomics Associations (FEES) and the Centre for Registration of the European Ergonomists (CREE)

Programme

14:15 -14:45 Welcome address and introduction to the seminar

>Sabina Nuti, Director of the Healthcare Management Laboratory, Institute of Management, St. Anna University

>Francesca Tosi, President of the Italian Society of Ergonomics and Human Factors (SIE)

14,45-15:00 The profession of the European Ergonomist in practice, 20 years later

>Maggie Graf (Swiss Authority for Health and Safety - President, CREE)

15:00-15:15 Activity and creativity for HFE in Europe

>Sylvain Leduc (University of Marseille - President, FEES)

15:15 -17 Round table with short presentations and discussion, chair Tommaso Bellandi (SIE)

Creativity and innovations in process and product assessment and design in service and manufacturing

>Speakers: Isabella Steffan, Tommaso Grillo Ruggieri (Italy), Ernst Koningsveld (The Netherlands), Gyula Szabo (Hungary), Thomas Studely (Switzerland)

17.00-18:00 small groups discussion and feedback

The roadmap towards IEA 2018, networking for a participatory design of the world congress

>coordinates Sara Albolino (Delegate for international relations, SIE)